

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local And Personal Happenings of Heppner And Vicinity.

Mrs. Wm. Culick of Lena was in the city Sunday.

Hugh C. Githens went to Portland on business last Sunday.

C. H. Miller of Hermiston paid Heppner a visit on Monday.

J. B. Sparks was a visitor in Ione last Sunday between trains.

B. B. Lane of Irrigon was a Heppner business visitor Monday.

M. H. Lee of Canby, Oregon was in our city the first of the week.

Art Crawford and Robert Hopkins were passengers to Ione Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patterson spent Sunday with relatives in Pendleton.

Frank Hopkins of Ione was a visitor in this city last Sunday evening.

August Sachter of Lexington was a Tuesday business visitor in this city.

R. E. Allstott, well known Eight Mile farmer, spent Sunday in this city.

Jas. Pointer of Lexington has gone to Eugene, where he will spend the winter.

W. G. Scott, Lexington banker, was a business visitor in Heppner Wednesday.

Born—On Sept. 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gammel of this city, a daughter.

Mrs. A. L. Ayers went to Portland Wednesday to make a brief visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Culick of Little Butte creek were Heppner visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter of Rhea creek were Heppner visitors the first of the week.

I. P. Richardson, Standard Oil representative, was in the city Tuesday from Portland.

George Perry and son, Meril, came over from their Rock creek home Tuesday in their car.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh White of Lexington were in the city for a few hours on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt motored in from their farm home in the Rhea creek section on Wednesday.

Jake Osten was a passenger to the Egg City last Sunday morning, returning to Heppner in the evening.

Fred Tash and family were Sunday visitors with friends and relatives in the Ione neighborhood last Sunday.

Miss Mary Geinger of Ione spent the week end in Heppner at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. B. Sparks.

Oren Brown, until recently engaged in the restaurant business in Ione, spent a few days in Heppner this week.

Roy Ashbaugh came in from the Eight Mile country Wednesday after supplies for his father's threshing outfit.

Miss Virginia Crawford went to Ione Wednesday to begin her classes in piano teaching for the fall term and winter.

Miss Neva Hayes returned to her home in Heppner last Saturday evening after an extended visit with relatives in Eugene.

Mrs. John F. Vaughn has been visiting relatives in the Willamette Valley. She was a guest at the Oregon State Fair last week.

The O. W. R. & N. Co. is making some improvements at the local depot, chief among them being a new platform around the building.

Jared and Henry Aiken returned to Heppner Sunday evening after an extended visit in the Valley. The boys took in the State Fair at Salem while gone.

Garnett Barratt came in on the train Sunday evening after taking in the State Fair at Salem last week. He also visited a few days in Portland.

Miss Lera Githens, who is teaching school near Morgan this winter left Sunday morning for that place after attending the teachers' institute held here last week.

H. A. Clemens who for the past six years has edited the Pine Valley Herald at Halfway, has sold his interest newspaper work. Mr. Clemens formerly lived in Pendleton.

At the Senior class meeting of the local high school last Thursday, Muriel McCarty was elected president, Stephen Irwin, vice president and Lena Hughes, secretary and treasurer.

Ernest Stapleton, who farms west of Heppner was in the city last Saturday. Mr. Stapleton says his crop was good this year. He expects to leave about the first of November for Missouri and he may decide to locate there permanently.

R. J. Carsner, Wheeler county stockman, shipped a car of cattle to Portland the first of the week. Should the Portland market prove unsatisfactory he will take his stuff on to Seattle. Mr. Carsner may bring home a car of feeders to fatten.

Jos. Hayes was a passenger to Portland last Sunday.

W. S. Raker, Portland insurance man, is in the city today.

Howard Anderson, Eight Mile farmer, was business visitor in Heppner today.

L. D. Neill was a Wednesday business visitor in Heppner from Little Butte creek.

Mike Healy made a trip into the Ione country after some horses the first of the week.

Vernon Jones, son of C. E. Jones of Eight Mile, is over from his Irrigon home this week.

Green tomatoes in any quantity at 2 cents a pound, at our nursery in Heppner, Harry Cummings.

Lawrence Redding is busy at this time hauling wheat to a local warehouse from his Eight Mile farm.

Miss Evelyn Shipley has returned to her home in this city after spending the summer with relatives at Pilot Rock.

R. F. Wigglesworth and E. O. Neill, prominent Galloway stockman, were transacting business in Heppner Wednesday.

Mrs. F. Luper will sell at a special reduction sale, her entire line of trimmed hats, beginning Saturday, October 7th.

Alfred Anderson, who farms the N. A. Clark ranch in the Eight Mile section, was in the city on business Wednesday.

Ray Young was in the city Wednesday from Eight Mile. Ray is assisting in moving the wheat crop in that country.

Linus Judd has returned to Heppner after spending two months with the 3rd Oregon Infantry on the Mexican border.

The mountains and foothills south of Heppner are white as the result of a snowfall there early this week. The Indians have predicted an early winter and a severe one.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Minor and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer of this city attended the State Fair at Salem last week. They returned home Wednesday evening, coming up in the Minor car.

Hanson Hughes, democratic candidate for county treasurer, left this week for an extended visit in Portland. Hanson's friends say that he is preparing to open his campaign in Multnomah county.

Freight service on the local branch is being improved and passengers are not encountering that unpleasant waiting at every station that was endured in past years. A special grain train went down the branch Monday.

V. Gentry was displaying a small rattlesnake in town Wednesday. He had the serpent, which he caught on the Neville place above town, in a bottle. The snake was a young one, having only one rattle and a button.

A. L. Ayers has purchased a Buick Six from Albert Bowker, of the Heppner Garage of this city. Mr. Ayers formerly drove a Ford. Mr. Bowker has disposed of a large number of these cars during the past few months.

Major Hiram U. Welch of the Militia Federal Service writes to this office from The Dalles announcing that Recruiting Sergeant Powelson will be in Heppner for three days—October 6-7-8 looking for possible recruits.

W. F. Honey of the Oregon-Dakota Land Company, spent a few hours in Heppner Wednesday on business. He was accompanied by Walt Smith, local representative of the same company, with offices in Ione. Mr. Honey makes his home in Gresham.

We are in receipt of a photograph of the B. H. Peck individual exhibit at the State Fair. Mr. Peck's exhibit was the cause of much favorable comment. All of his display consisted of dry-farmed products and was practically the same as displayed at the recent county fair in this city.

Gurdane & Son have made arrangements whereby they will receive returns from the election on the evening of November 7. A large black blackboard will be erected in their store and as the results come in they will be recorded on the board. Automobiles will bring the returns from the depot to the store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Livingston and son have gone to Portland for the winter. Mr. Livingston will attend medical college there and teach in the night classes at the Lincoln high school. They expect to go East next year in order that Mr. Livingston may complete his medical education at the John Hopkins University.

W. O. Minor, Merle Neill and Neal Crawford went up to the head of Ditch creek the first of the week and are now busy turning the water of that creek into the Willow creek basin. This is the result of a movement started through the Heppner commercial club last spring. Farmers living on Willow creek are much interested in the move, inasmuch as they figure that the additional water will give them ample supply for irrigation during a dry year. Money to put the project through was raised by popular subscription.

TWICE PROVEN.

If you suffer backaches, sleepless nights, tired, dull days and distressing urinary disorders, don't experiment. Read this twice-told testimony. It is Heppner evidence—doubly proven.

J. H. Cox, carpenter, Baltimore St., Heppner, says: "It seems that if I catch the least cold, I suffer much from pain in my back. I have seen the time that I simply couldn't go and had to stay in bed for a week or ten days. I have used a great many medicines, but I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills have done me more good than anything. I haven't been bothered now for quite a while."

The above statement was given April 8, 1916 and on May 11, 1916, Mr. Cox said: "It has been a long time since I have had any occasion to take a kidney medicine. I still consider Doan's Kidney Pills a good, reliable medicine for backache and kidney disorders."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cox has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Jack Mulligan, the Portland piano tuner is in the city on his regular visit and will remain the rest of the week. This is an excellent opportunity for all owners of pianos to have their instruments put in proper condition.

Harve G. Coxen and Della Hake, popular young people of Galloway were married in this city last Thursday. County Judge C. C. Patterson performed the ceremony. The newlyweds will make their home on Butte creek.

Manager Sparks announces a big dance in the opera house for Saturday night. Good music will be furnished for the occasion.

Frank Barlow of Rhea creek is busy hauling in the big wheat crop these days. Mr. Barlow is road supervisor in his district.

James Duffy and H. R. Sallsbury, Portland insurance men were spending a few days in Heppner on business this week.

H. C. Oliver, traveling freight agent of the O. W. R. & N. Co. paid Heppner an official visit this week.

IONE NEWS NOTES.

(Continued from page one)

L. P. Davidson spent the week end in Portland, returning home on Tuesday evening.

Miss Virginia Crawford was down from Heppner Wednesday to look after her music pupils.

Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg was a visitor in Heppner over Friday night last, attending the services held there by Bishop Paddock.

Frank Frates of Eight Mile is joy riding these days. He came to Ione the first of the week and made a trade with J. H. Wilt for his Ford.

The family of J. W. Henkle have moved to town from their farm to take advantage of our school this winter. They will occupy the Ely residence.

Bert Bowker, Heppner garage man, was in and about Ione several days this week looking after prospective auto buyers and demonstrating the good points of the Buick.

L. L. Putman is up from Portland and will have charge of the concrete work on the new Mason building. He formerly resided in Ione with his family and worked in the store of Mr. Mason.

Mrs. J. H. Wilt and daughter, Miss Dorris, and the Misses Muriel and Marie Cason traveled to Heppner Friday last and attended the confirmation services held at the Episcopal church in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Ely were visitors from Morgan on Wednesday. Mr. Ely reports threshing in his community as almost finished, and the farmers there are satisfied with results obtained.

Clive Huston, hustling young farmer of Eight Mile, was doing business in Ione Wednesday, getting ready to haul his grain to market. He has just finished threshing and got fine returns.

Dan E. Balch, postmaster of Morgan, was doing business in Ione Wednesday. He is patiently waiting for the threshing to pull in on his wheat, after which he will be able to figure up his wealth.

Our bunch of hunters mentioned in last issue returned home Sunday after several days of diligent search in the Blue Mountains for deer. They had no success in this line but found some good fishing which they enjoyed to the limit.

D. O. Barnes and family who have been living on the L. P. Davidson place since last fall, departed Friday for California where they expect to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes are the parents of Mrs. W. A. Wilkin, of Gooseberry.

SINCERITY OVERCOATS

Will you make your selection now from a new complete line of late overcoats?

We suggest that you do.

ED. V. PRICE OVERCOATS

To your measure.

The greatest tailoring house for reliability and satisfaction. A thousand patterns and styles to choose from.

"GOOD GOODS"

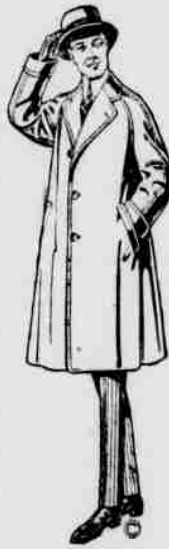

Loose- and tight-fitting styles, long or short overcoats.

With or without velvet collars.

"Shawl" or "Military" Collars.

"Set in" or "Raglan" Sleeves.

Patterns in solid colors and many fancy mixtures.

MINOR & Co.

"GOOD GOODS"

MUTUAL MASTER PICTURES

STAR THEATRE

SUNDAY, OCT. 8th

The Great Emotional Drama HIS WIFE

PRESENTED BY THE THANHOUSER STAR GERALDINE O'BRIEN and a cast of unusual strength.

The tragic story of a husband's heroic sacrifices for a worthless brother.

GIGANTIC CLIMAXES
HARROWING SITUATIONS
A SMASHING DENOUEMENT

Will rouse you to the breaking point of suspense.

Every wife and every husband should see this
MARVELOUS 5 ACT MUTUAL MASTERPIECE

STAR THEATRE SUNDAY ONLY

RED FRONT

Livery & Feed Stables

WILLIS STEWART, Proprietor.

First Class Livery Rigs

kept constantly on hand and can be furnished on short notice to parties desiring to drive into the interior. First class

Hacks and Buggies

Call around and see us.

We cater to the Commercial Travelers and Camping Parties and can furnish rigs and driver on short notice.

HEPPNER . . . OREGON

Wood and Coal

HEPPNER WOOD YARD

N. A. CLARK, Proprietor,
SUCCESSOR TO E. E. BEAMAN

LET US SUPPLY YOUR FUEL NEEDS.

Phone 396 - Heppner, Oregon

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE GAZETTE-TIMES AND READ THE NEWS WHILE IT IS NEWS